

Hanford Reach

September 16, 2002

Hanford Site Employee News

REMEMBERING 9-11: Marine Reservist Chuck Forrester of Fluor Hanford raises a flag and then lowers it to half-staff over the FH headquarters building, 2420 Stevens Center, on the morning of Sept 11. Fellow Marine Kathy Geiger, also of Fluor Hanford, shared honor-guard duties with Forrester during the ceremony in remembrance of the victims of last year's terrorist attacks. George Garlick of the Stevens Center Business Park arranged for the new flagpole on the roof of the building and also delivered the invocation for the ceremony. Professional musician Chris Loid played taps on the trumpet and sang patriotic songs. Similar ceremonies were held throughout the Hanford Site.